$1,000,000 BUDGET LOOMS BUT NO TAX RAISE

THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

Earth shaking event: Up Bellevue avenue way they have earthquakes all their own.

It's no joke.

Residents in this upper strata Daly City area reported another one just this week. Nobody else in the city feels 'em.

This geographical phenomenon has been reported several times, so it sounds like the gospel.

Daly City firemen were notified of the most recent tremor by JESSIE ANDERSON, 531 Bellevue.

Quaffers paradise: WALT GILLIES, local rec commissioner, and TONY RICCI, police commissioner, both being execs in the local brewery union, took in the recent four-day brewery conference back east.

There was business to be settled at the confab, but at the same time there was bound to be a lot of brew around.

Daly City's representatives described it as a "convention-type convention," if you know what they mean.

EVELYN COHN, right-handlady to the city administrator, really made it a family affair weekend last when she visited Los Angeles.

She flew down with her sister, stayed there with her mother, so she could witness the wedding of her brother.

Also along city hall row: HELEN PISTOLESI is back part-time filling a desk in the police clerical dept. She toiled for the city back about a year ago.

Ever go back to a familiar spot after 21 years and check the response when you ask old friends if they remember you?

The Rev. John A. Glasse, Broadmoor church minister, did just that last week as he and Mrs. Glasse attended the 40th anniversary of the organizing of the Arcadia Presbyterian church.

Glasse served the congregation there just 21 years ago.

More churchmen on the move: The Rev. ROY MILAM of Westlake's Baptist church just returned from a jaunt to the hinterlands of the east.

Drove 1000 miles a day to get back here in time to officiate at a local wedding Thursday night. . . . That's what we call devotion to duty.

FRED BRICKER, who was married, hired by THE RECORD and drafted all in one breath, dropped in at the plant to pay respects this week after serving out his basic training.

He left for Camp Gordon, Georgia, Wednesday night, to enter pole lineman school.

Fred is a printer by trade, so it follows that the Army is going to make a pole lineman out of him.

Shots after the din and shouting: JIM McKAY, staunch demo, cracked a recent ARTHUR YOUNGER toasting party last week in Broadmoor, promptly began passing out HAROLD TAGGART matchbooks . . . . didn't DALE CARNEGIE write a book about tricks like that?

WALT GILLIES (mentioned a few inches back in this column)

Half Of Local Voters Show; Results Follow State Trend

COUNTY INCUMBENTS SCORE WINS HERE: BALLOTING ON STATE POSTS IS DIVIDED

Slightly under 50 per cent of Daly City's 10,812 registered voters reported to the polls Tuesday and, in general, hewed to party registration.

Voting in Daly City's 51 precincts followed closely the pattern throughout the state, with each candidate winning in their respective parties with the exception of Attorney General Pat Brown, who captured both nominations.

All incumbents running for county positions received edges in Daly City as throughout the county, although some of the races were close locally.

Francis Strong Here

In the battle for second district supervisor, incumbent Martin Poss polled 2160 here, while young attorney Louis Francis ran a close second with 1829. Joseph Ridolfi garnered 727 votes.

Incumbent Supervisor Ed McDonald of the first district scored a more decisive defeat here over his opponent, Lester Morgan, totalling 2995 to Morgan's 1554.

Daly City race for Superior Judge, department No. 1, was tight, as it was throughout the county. Eighty-year old incumbent Aylett R. Cotton received 2960, as against 2032 for John Waldier, San Carlos attorney.

Judge Louis B. Dematteis of department No. 2 won a whopping decision over Henry Davis, getting 3363 against Davis' 1592.

The district attorney race was a walkaway for incumbent Keith Sorenson in the total county vote, but Roy Seagraves drew a surprising total in Daly City, while Herschel Campbell, San Mateo mayor, pulled in third.

More Than Both

Sorenson, who had a total vote of 42,281, more than the other two candidates combined, rang up 2317 votes locally.

Ira Boynton scored a decisive 3318 votes in Daly City, 49,967 throughout the county, to easily top his opposition, J. Carl Ferrell, who had 976 local votes and a total of 19,809.

In the county coroner competition, Incumbent Paul Jensen also had a firm majority, gaining 3507 tallies here, against 1031 for John Brickell. The loser had a total of 14,911 votes.

Daly City's 70 per cent democratic registration stuck mainly to the party in Tuesday's election.

Knight 7 to 1

Governor Goodwin Knight led the GOP voting by nearly seven to one over Graves, but the latter won a slim majority for the Democratic nomination. Knight had 1590 Republican votes, 1557 Democratic. Graves won only 190 Republican votes, but had 1876 Democratic followers. Wilson won 211 on the Democratic side and Gabrish took 190 GOP votes.

Although incumbent Lieutenant Governor Harold Powers had a majority in Daly City voting, Edward Roybal offered stiff competition and won a decisive nomination on the Democratic ticket.

Powers garnered 1259 Republican votes, 1107 Democratic. Roybal had only 127 Republican votes, but 1963 Democratic ballots.

In the senatorial contest, Samuel Yorty, despite adverse publicity on his use of the congressional mailing frank, won the Democratic nomination here with 1666 votes, as compared to 864 Demo votes for Thomas Kuchel. Kuchel rang up 1415 GOP votes to easily win that nomination, as Yorty was his closest opposition, with only 180.

Brown Cops Both

Attorney General Brown, one of the few candidates who won both nominations throughout the state, did likewise in Daly City. Brown had 985 Republican votes, 3145 Democratic.

Fred N. Howser had a slim total of 158 Republican backers here, but carried 2754 on the Democratic ticket.

George Reilly was a double winner in the board of equalization,

REC WORK GIVEN PRIORITY

Commission Slates Four Top Projects

The Daly City recreation commission, meeting Monday night to outline projects for the coming year, listed Westlake, Frankfort and Lincoln parks and completion of the community center as top priority.

Since the budget will not allow work to begin on all projects during the 1954-55 fiscal year, the commission's effort was to list items of most importance.

The recreation commissioners called for work to begin on the Westlake park tiny tot area, parking area and front landscaping. They asked thatthis project be started in conjunction with the Henry Doelger clubhouse.

Expenditure of $3000 for improving Lincoln park was called for.

At Frankfort park, commissioners estimated it would take $7000 to do work necessary there.

The recreation department plan calls for complete re-development of Frankfort.

Specific items listed for Frankfort were: Removal of softball backstop. The park is listed as not adequate for baseball at present; macadamize top of the park area; install a basketball court, two volley ball courts; install a new and clean sand box; extend field house; install tether ball court; construct benches imbedded in concrete.

Winding up work on the community center was another top priority project outlined by the commission. They said that a meeting is contemplated between the architect, council and the commission to discuss developing and completing the center.

The commission's recommendations will be considered by the city council at a special budget session tomorrow (Saturday).

AFTER YEAR'S ABSENCE -- COURT RETURNS TO DALY CITY

COURT SESSIONS resumed in Daly City last Friday on a small scale. Since inauguration of the municipal court system more than a year ago, all Daly City court matters had been handled in South San Francisco municipal court. On request from Daly City, Judge Thomas L. Bocci is now holding court at the local council chambers every Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. In Friday's initial session, Judge Bocci handled approximately 15 cases, predominately involving motor vehicle code violations. Shown in photo (left to right) are: Robert A. Kull, official court reporter; Judge Bocci; Robert A. Lynch, bailiff; and Richard R. Liberty, clerk of the court.

GIRL SCOUT FUND DRIVE GOAL SET AT $50,000 MARK

Daly City was the first district to have a kick-off meeting for the Girl Scout capitol fund drive for devolpment of its new camp in Sonora prior to the opening of the drive, June 5.

Mrs. Frank Burks, president of the North San Mateo Girl Scout council, stated that a goal of $50,000 has been set for the drive. The figure was set, she explained, after a careful study of development necessary for a model camp.

Peter J. Markovich, chairman of the original planning committee, is chairman of the campaign operating committee. Assisting Markovich are Mrs. Allen Mori, Mrs. Eugene Graff, Mrs. Melvin Everhart and Mrs. George O'Leary. Committee members are Mrs. Ralph Hanan, Mr. Jack Henry, Mrs. G. G. Kitson, Mrs. G. L. Camp and Mrs. J. K. Hardies.

The site of the new camp was approved and purchased last year by the Scout Council after many years of search for an ideal, all year camp which would be available to the Girl Scouts in the county.

CITY RENEWS TALKS WITH MUNI RAILWAY

Decision to negotiate with the San Francisco Municipal railway for continuation of bus service here was announced by the city council Monday night.

Following a muni ultimatum last month that Daly City has 30 days in which to decide whether they will subsidize the No. 76 line or have service discontinued, the city had received offers of transportation from three different companies.

Del Wilson, chairman of the transportation committee, read the committee's verdict Monday night. Although the council called for immediate negotiations to maintain muni service here, they said

City Administrator Dan Andersen announced today that negotiations with the muni railway have tentatively been set for Tuesday at 2 p.m. in San Francisco city hall.

Since the muni has agreed on meeting with Daly City that day, it appears they have granted an extension of the bus service for the time being.

Under the 30-day ultimatum issued by San Francisco last month, operation of the No. 76 bus here would be discontinued Monday night if Daly City made no arrangements for subsidizing the line.

Crossing Is Asked At Top of Hill Area

The problem of pedestrians crossing Mission street near the "top of the till" area was put before the city council again Monday night.

Mrs. Lee Bragrash, wife of the the operator of a pharmacy at the top of the hill, said that a pedestrian crossing was urgently needed at Hillside boulevard where it meets Mission street.

"I have had to help many old people across Mission street myself," Mrs. Bagrash said. "Besides," she added, "It's definitely bad for business."

The council, in explaining that this problem had come to their attention before, turned the matter over to the police commission for further study.

BOERSTLER DRIVE CONTINUES; MORE DONATIONS URGED

The Daly City fund drive for the widow and four children of George Boerstler, who was killed in a gas explosion last month, continued this week with $1500 the goal sought.

Peter Markovich, co-chairman along with Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, said the drive lagged this week and only $90 had been collected.

They urged all local residents to lend a hand in the drive.

Tickets for the fund are being sold for $1 each.

The benefit drive is being sponsored by the City Employees association, the Fire Department and THE RECORD. Tickets may be obtained from members of these agencies.

COUNCIL WILL CHOP REQUESTS $150 000

The city tax rate apparently will be held for the coming fiscal year, but the council is going to have to chop $150,000 off budget requests to make the grade.

A whopping record total of $1,100,203.15 was requested by the various departments in the preliminary budget.

Even though the council whittles this down $150,000, the budget for the fiscal year 1954-55 should still be close to $1,000,000.

This would mean an increase of nearly $200,000 over last year's record budget of $802,660. Growth of the city can be shown ghaphically by the jump in budgetting over the past three years. For the 1952-53 fiscal year, the budget was $659,670.

The council figures that the present tax rate of $1.38 per $100 assessed valuation can be maintained if the budget is held right around $1,000,000.

Increased assessed valuation of the community and a jump of $50,000 annually in state allocations because of the recent Daly City census are the factors the council believes will allow maintenance of the present tax rate.

Largest single item on the budget request for the coming year came from the police department, which is asking $215,537 to operate. Last year the police budget was $152,600.

The police department based the high request on the need for ten more personnel during the coming year.

Second high request was entered by the water department, which seeks $156,350 for the coming year, as compared with last year's budget of $101,231. Of the total request, $20,000 is asked to pay increased use of gas and electrical service necessitated by new wells and pumps.

Next in order of amount was the fire department, asking $118,445, more than double the 1953-54 fiscal year budget of $55,575.

The fire department is also calling for ten more men, and this alone would swell the budget needs some $40,000, thus accounting for the high request.

Streets department is asking $89,550, just a slight increment over the previous year's budget of $81,900.

General administration requested $75,863 for operation. Last year this facet of city government was budgeted $65,535.

A total of $80,000 is sought by the recreation department, about $15,000 more than was allocated that department last year.

S. F. MARINE HELD FOR RAPE OF LOCAL WAITRESS

An 18-year-old Marine is being held in lieu of bail by the local police after he confessed the rape of a 30-year-old waitress Saturday night.

Ernest Joseph Ibarra, 245 Palmetta street, San Francisco, was arrested Sunday after he was named as the young man who offered to drive the waitress and two mutual friends home at 2 a.m. Saturday night.

According to the victim, she was waiting for a taxi in front of the taxi office on Mission street with a couple who were friends of hers when a young man approached and began talking to the couple. During the conversation the youth asked if he could drive the couple home.

The couple accepted the offer and asked if he would mind driving the waitress to her home also.

In his statement to the police the friend said that he had been drinking or he would have insisted that the woman be taken home first, instead Ibarra dropped the couple at their home and then he and another youth, who was in the car when the three got in, started driving toward the beach. The woman stated that during the trip she attempted to escape but was captured again when both boys gave chase.

In her statement the victim said that she was finally released at the beach and she then walked to a phone to contact her husband.

Judge Fred Wyckoff set bail for Ibarra at $1500 cash or $3000 bond.

Motorcyclist Injured In Accident On Alemany

Gus Leveroni, 26, of 92 Del Monte street, San Francisco, suffered a fractured leg Sunday when his motorcycle overturned pinning him under it.

Leveroni and a friend were traveling along Alemany boulevard when the car ahead of Leveroni stopped to allow a car to cross the intersection. The motorcyclist stated that he swerved between two halted cars and his vehicle turned over.

Leveroni was taken to Junipero Serra hospital and later transferred to Mary's Help hospital in San Francisco.

Planners Meet Set For Wednesday Night

Daly City's planning commission meeting, scheduled for Tuesday night, has been postponed to Wednesday, Fred Bertetta, chairman, announced this week.

On Tuesday night all local commissioners and department heads will gather with the city council for a banquet at The Southern.

COUNCIL RESTATES COMMISSION POLICY

Dissatisfaction with the way some of Daly City's commissioners have been carrying out their duties was indirectly expressed by the city council Monday night in study session.

Meeting for the first time with newly-appointed fire commissioners Louis Lacombe, Robert Hunter and Emil Bertelli, the council gave a tight definition of the duties and powers of commissioners.

Mayor Joseph Verducci, in explaining policy to the appointees, said, "We want to get the policy straight with you new commissioners so as to avoid what's been happening recently in other commissions."

Apparently the council has become disgruntled over the way individual commissioners have been transacting business on their own, instead of operating as a body.

Verducci warned the new commission of the problems that would face them.

In speaking to the new commissioners, Verducci hinted that other commissioners had had such "problems."

"It's not your duty to head individual gripes," Verducci said. "If anyone has a complaint they should be called before the entire commission."

Verducci's remarks appeared to be pointed at recent individual action by other commissioners.

The mayor went on to explain that "as a sixth class city we don't have to have commissions. But we're lay people and can't be expected to be personally acquainted with details of every city department."

He said this was the reason commissions were chosen.

City Attorney Frank Blum gave each fire commissioner a copy of the ordinance governing commissions and explained the limit of their powers.

Boy Scout Finance Drive Raises $632

First report for the Boy Scout finance campaign shows a total of $632.10 turned in from the residential and business sections, according to Robert E. Hunter, business division chairman. Of this amount, $268.60 was accounted for by residential canvassers of Pack 62 and 243 in Daly City. Pack 243, sponsored by Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, fielded 14 workers who raised $193.40 from among residents in the blocks assigned to them.

Pack 243's teams worked under the direction of Stanley G. White, with other workers including: James C. Reeder, Sam Calavano, Mrs. Dorothy Keith, Mrs. Dorothy Knox, Mrs. Othello G. Fair, Mrs. S. C. Vorsatz, Mrs. Marie Krystofiak, Dan Brooks, Mrs. Ruth DeJulius, R. B. Enberg, Mrs. John Kulik, and R. Grant. Pack 62, sponsored by the Bellevue Parents, reported a total of $75, with the following workers: Mrs. Grace Radford, Mrs. Marie Weeden, Mrs. Rodriguez, Mrs. Muriel Keith, Don Iwahashi, Mr. and Mrs. M. Broadbent and Robert J. Keith. Captain for the Pack 62 workers was Frank Prisco Sr.

Hunter said today that many of the business division workers had not yet made their first reports. To date the business division has accounted for $363.50, from the first reports of only nine workers. High man among these first nine reporting was Fire Chief J. E. Kennedy, who turned in $87.50 of the total.

"If everyone who has cards for the Boy Scout campaign will make their calls before the end of next week, we should be able to wind up our campaign," Hunter said.

Six other packs and troops are covering additional sections in the residential dvision, so that the total from the campaign is expected to be considerably larger than the preliminary reports to date, according to the chairman. Funds raised will be used to extend the program of the Boy Scouts of America to more boys in the Daly City-Colma area, with the possibility that a local "district" organization will be set up to make the boys' work organization more effective in this area.

Working with Hunter on auditing the campaigner's report envelopes are C. Russell Hanley, Fred N. Kruse and Maurice Powers.

Local Boy Stages Crime Wave After Hillcrest Escape

A 14 year old Daly City boy held for car theft in Hillside Juvenile hall escaped and added another car theft and two burglaries, both of local establishments, to his record in less than 24 hours Tuesday morning.

The youth, who boasts of having stolen 22 cars, escaped from the detention home, swam across the Crystal Springs reservoir, stole a boat from the boathouse maintained by the San Francisco water company, stole a car owned by Wallace Rowland, 1768 Parrot drive, Redwood City, drove here and burglarized the California Seed and Nursery company, 1971 Junipero Serra boulevard and the Modern Unfinished Furniture store, 1965 Junipero Serra boulevard.

The boy admitted his escapedes and was turned over to the California Youth Authority for transfer to the Pasa Robles forestry camp.

Locally the boy stole a dollar role of pennies, a portable typewriter, a box of penny suckers, an unknown sum of money, several stamps and a Victor adding machine.

A Redwood City resident spotted the boy in the car as he sat parked at the corner of Fifth avenue and Edison street in Redwood City.

GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS TRAFFIC SAFETY CRUSADE WEEK, JUNE 14-21

During 1953, death came to 3,371 people in California as the direct result of accidents involving motor vehicles. There were more than 110,000 injuring accidents in that year and the economic loss to the people of our State has been estimated at $320,000,000 because of these tragedies in traffic.

If criminals and outlaws in our midst were to exact such a toll, an aroused citizenry would undertake a crusade to stamp out the roots of such activity.

The California Safety Council, a statewide volunteer organization, is inaugurating a Traffic Safety Crusade, assisted by the newspapers of our State, directed at increasing the awareness of individual drivers to their responsibilites for the promotion and maintenance of safety on our highways and streets.

Recognizing the value of such programs in reducing vehicular accidents in our State, I, Goodwin J. Knight, Governor of California, hereby designate the period of June 14-21, 1954, as the opening week of this Crusade, and I urge all Californians to cooperate by signing Safe Driving Pledges and by otherwise promoting the cause of traffic safety to the fullest possible extent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 28th day of May, A.D., One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Four.

first district, ballotting for Daly City, but will face a run-off with Stuart McClure, San Francisco newspaperman, in the November elections.

Throughout the state, McClure captured the Republican nod, while Reilly was an easy winner for the Democratic nomination.

Reilly polled 624 Republican votes in Daly City, against 475 for McClure. He topped McClure locally for the Democratic choice, 2754 to 367.

Younger In Run-Off

Congressman J. Arthur Younger, ninth district, won handily for the Republican nomination, but will face Harold Taggart, Democratic winner, for the second time this fall. Younger had 1428 Republican votes, 830 Democratic. Taggart had 314 from the opposite camp, and 2545 from his party, the Democrats. Younger defeated Taggart two years ago in the general election.

Assemblyman, 25th district, Daniel Creedon, will battle James Daly in the November run-off.

Creedon swept the Republican nomination with 1373 tallies, while Daly, a Sharp Park carpenter, won the Democratic vote with 1709. Daly had 169 Republican votes and Creedon had 839 from the Demos. Third man in the race, Ted Pretzer, disabled vet, won 705 Demo votes, 80 from the GOP.

Incumbent Robert Kirkwood and George Collins will vie for the state controller post in November. Kirkwood rolled up a 1403 Republican vote in Daly City, against a 796 Democratic total. Collins had 233 GOP backers, 2467 Democrats.

Estimate 5250 Turnout

Although the county elections office has not completed tabulation of all ballots, an estimated 5250 Daly City residents went to the polls, less than half of those registered.

Registration of Daly City is close to 70 per cent Democrat, with 6904 Demos, 3537 Republicans.

thought that the zone fare system would be the only workable solution to cutting the muni's annual deficit of $40,000 on the No. 76. Under the zone system, extra fare would be paid in proportion to distance traveled.

The muni seeks a subsidy to eliminate the annual loss.

Since the muni has asked for an answer from Daly City by Monday night, the city council is seeking an extension on the deadline so that negotiations can be arranged.

If negotiations with the muni fail, then the council is prepared to re-convene the transportation hearings and set negotiations with one of the three other companies offering service here—Peninsula Bus Lines, Westmoor Transit Co., and the Jitneys.

"Better Service

Councilman Micheal De Bernardi said in seeking to retain muni service here he hoped that the council wouldn't merely ask for a continuation of the present type service, but would work for better service.

Meeting in study session later Monday night, the council mapped a tentative route to be presented to the San Francisco public utilities commission Monday.

Roughly, the schedule called for an inter-city service that would connect up with the No. 56, cemeteries line, and the No. 28 at Junipero Serra boulevard. The line would extend from the top-of-the-hill area on Mission street into Westlake, thus providing fast service between the two areas.

Proposed Route

The proposed route would start at Mission street, down Knowles avenue to Junipero Serra, over Serra to Broadmoor, through Broadmoor, into Westlake, up Alemany to Junipero Serra and Knowles and from there up Knowles to Mission. Another bus would traverse the same route but would travel from Mission direct to Westlake and then around through Broadmoor, north on Junipero Serra, and back up Knowles to Mission.

Key to the route, according to the council, is tying up the run with San Francisco's No. 28 bus, which goes to 19th avenue, thus providing transportation to downtown San Francisco.

The council proposes that San Francisco extend the route of the No. 28 over the viaduct on Junipero Serra down to the Serra-Knowles intersection, where the bus could there pick up Daly City passengers.

Marin county had 601 farms, in 1950, according to the Census of Agriculture of that year.

Younger Thanks Campaign Workers

In line with the trend all over the state, Congressman J. Arthur Younger won only his own party nomination, although he rolled up a larger majority vote than his opponent. Younger, who returned to Washington Monday to vote on important legislation, said over the phone early Wednesday morning after hearing election results,

"My heartfelt thanks and appreciation go to all the hundreds of men and women who worked so loyally for my election. I know they will carry on the fight in my absence."

Dan G. Minto, general chairman for Younger, said today the campaign organization will be kept intact with an intensified campaign planned when Younger returns at the close of the 83rd Congress. He and other campaign officials also commended the workers for a job well done.

RE DALY CITY'S COMMISSIONS

Daly City's commissions have recently been under fire from the council because some of the commissioners have taken it upon themselves to lend an ear to individual grievances or problems, according to the council.

As pointed out by the city attorney Monday night, the commission, in a sixth class city, is not a statutory body and its powers are limited in scope by the law governing sixth class cities.

Therefore, the commission members are not protected in their positions by either status or public mandate. They are an appendage of the council and are responsible to the council and liable to dismissal by the council.

Under this set-up, it would appear that a commission's hands re tied.

However, commissioners consist in the main of conscientious citizens who are interested in their community and would like to see a job well done.

Although they operate by sufferance of the council, they are not, generally speaking, "kept," by the council, since they serve on the commission without pay.

We can understand the council's position in dictating a policy that individual commissioners refrain from acting on their own. The commission should operate just as the word designates—a commission. Their decisions should be made jointly, as should their transactions.

If every commissioner took it upon himself to hear grievances, no matter how petty or profound, of sundry citizens and city employees, the commission would soon become nothing more than a "chaplain" service to the peeved and the grieved.

Proper procedure, as the council pointed out, is for persons with problems under jurisdiction of the commission, to bring these problems before the entire commission.

This way, the final decision is the result of a democratic process. At the same time the topic up for discussion becomes a public one—thus avoiding the taint that might come from too much "personal pressure."

At the same time, we don't believe the council should relegate the commissions to mere sounding boards for the council's opinions.

The council will have to tread softly where it concerns Daly City's commissions, or the purpose and the commissioners both might vanish.

Letters To The Editor

Extend Thanks To "The Record"

Editor,
Daly City Record
Dear Editor:

On behalf of the Board of Directors and members of the San Mateo County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., I wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to you and your staff for your generous help in telling your readers about our recently completed 1954 Easter Seal Fund Drive.

Though our goal has not yet been reached, I am certain that your assistance resulted in our having one of the most successful drives in the history of our organization.

To those many children and adults who annually look to our Society for help and training, your interest has been most gratifying. Funds raised will be put to work to aid these handicapped youngsters and grownups in living a more complete and useful existence.

Sincerely,

TB Association 50th Anniversary

Dear Editor:

Last Sunday the tuberculosis association o fthe United States marked the 50th anniversary of the nationwide volunteer movement against TB. On June 6, 1904, when a group of doctors and laymen met in Atlantic City to found the organization which was to become the National Tuberculosis Association with its 3000 affiliates in every state and territory, tuberculosis was the first cause of death in this country. Today it stands sixth.

Many factors, many organizations and individuals have contributed to the progress that has been made toward bringing TB under control. The disease is far from defeated, but we can now say that it can and will be defeated if there is no slackening in the great cooperative effort against it.

No hall in San Mateo county is big enough to hold all the people who have actively aided the fight against TB in this community; all the people who are entitled to share in this golden anniversary celebration. May I take this opportunity to thank them in the name of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association and the National Tubeculosis Association.

First, tribute must be paid to our doctors and nurses, our first line of defense against TB. Then to the personnel of our health department and our hospitals, our public officials, welfare agencies, school administrators and teachers and, service clubs, women's cdubs, church groups, professional societies, farm organizations, business and industrial firms, radio stations, and newspapers, including THE RECORD.

A special word for the many public-spirited men and women who through the years have given their time and talents to the work of the tuberculosis association. They have served as volunteer board and committee members, aided in carrying out the program, and in raising funds for its support. Finally, may I express the gratitude of the association, and indeed of the whole community, to the thousands of citizens who cooperate with the association's TB control activities, and who buy Christmas Seals. Without their support, the tuberculosis association could do nothing.

Sincerely,
Allen A. Lilienthal, M.D.
President, San Mateo County T.B. & Health Association.

FEWER RURAL ACCIDENTS

An encouraging decline in traffic accidents throughout the rural areas of California during the first four months of 1954 as compared with the first four months of 1951 is reported by the National Automobile Club. During the first four months of this year there were 8,470 reportable accidents, 13,033 persons injured, and 576 persons killed, while during the similar period of 1953 there were 9,078 reportable accidents, 14,227 persons injured, and 726 persons killed. These figures represent a decrease of 6.69 per cent, 8.39 per cent, and 20.56 per cent respectively.

LION TALES

By Joseph Belli Jr.

As recently stated in this column, the annual installation of officers and directors of the club will be held June 19 at Grant's Charcoal Broiler, 1 Lakeshore Plaza, San Francisco. That evening will consist of dinner, meeting, entertainment and dancing. Past President Stanford Hannah and Elio Fontana are co-chairmen for this special event.

Speaker for June 16 will be Frank Blum, city attorney. His speech will be, "Duties of the City Attorney."

There will be a special meeting for all officers and directors elect, to be held Tuesday night at 8 p.m. at 6253 Mission street.

Purpose of this meeting is to outline the activities and functions for the new year commencing July 1.

Lions Button

One of the first things one notices about the Lions button is the fact that it has two faces. It occurred to me that this double face might be construed to symbolize several things. First, it signifies the fact that Lions is ever on guard, ever ready to protect its principles from attack from any direction.

Second, it signifies a spirit of looking forward with an eye on the past—both that we should not forget what has been achieved in the past nor those who were instrumental in that achievement and that we should let our past experience giude us in our future activities.

Third, it signifies the international aspect of Lionism by looking both to the east and to the west—our great organization and the principles upon which it is founded are capturing the imagination of peoples all around our globe.

Trust Each Other

Fourth, it signifies that true Lions trust each other—the Lions code of ethics leads the way, and there is no backbiting.

Fifth, it signifies the fact that every Lion is really two Lions—he is an individual, and he is a member of a Lions den; a private citizen of his community and a part of an organization dedicated to community service and community betterment.

Be proud of your Lions emblem— wear it for all to see.

The Lions code of ethics are to show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service. Second to seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

Building Up

Third, to remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself. Fourth, whenever adoubt arises as to the right or ethics of may position or actions towards my fellow men, to reserve such doubt against my self. Fifth, to hold friendship as an end, and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given. Sixth, always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen, to my nation, my state and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act and deed.

To give them freely of my time, labor and means. Seventh, to aid my fellow men by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy. Eighth, and final one, to be careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.

Roybal Thanks Local Voters For Support

Edward Roybal, who won the democratic nomination for lieutenant governor, this week extended thanks and greetings to democrats of Daly Citv.

He said, "I will fulfill my promises and do my best to serve the people if elected in November.'

"The most important thing now," he added, "is to start registration of all persons not registered."

Julius Castelan, Daly City chairman for Roybal, also extended his thanks to the people of the community.

Blasting Cap Safety Drive Organized By Police, Explosive Manufacturers

The warning "DON'T TOUCH A BLASTING CAP" was sounded today by Chief Petrocchi in launching a safety campaign to protect children from accidents which last year blinded or maimed over a hundred children and adults.

Blasting caps are shiny metal tubes about as big around as a pencil and an inch and a half to five inches long. They pack deadly dangers, he warned.

Sensitive explosives in caps can explode at the slightest shock. The burst scatters sharp bits of metal that can puncture an eye, or sever fingers, a hand or foot.

"When you find a cap that has gone astray or been stolen, tell me, a policeman, or the nearest adult," urged Chief Petrocchi.

"We're asking everyone, boys, girls and grownups to help our community score a perfect safety record. We are distributing posters showing what caps look like, the dangers that threaten children who touch or, worse, play with one. Schools, playgrounds, and public libraries will do their part if they post these on bulletin boards where boys and girls can see them. Let's never have even one child in our district hurt by a blasting cap."

The Chief explained that he is pressing the safety drive at the request of the International Association of Chiefs of Police in cooperation with the Institute of Makers of Explosives. Caps, he pointed out, are needed to make dynamite useful in the important work of mining, excavating, building roads, and clearing farm land.

"Users of caps on such jobs," the Chief warned, "should do their part by keeping them and other explosives under adequate locks."

Blasting caps are small copper or aluminum cylinders about as big around as a lead pencil and between 1½ inches long. They contain a highly sensitive explosive and are used to explode dynamite, to mine coal and metals, quarry stone, and build bridges, roads, and skyscrapers.

There are two kinds of caps, according to Chief Petrocchi. The "ordinary cap" is exploded by sparks from a burning fuse inserted in one end of the cap. The other kind of cap is an electric blasting cap. It has two wires coming out of one end. These two wires are connected by a very thin wire that is sunk in the explosive charge in the cap. When electric current is applied, the thin wire becomes red hot and detonates the cap.

The explosives in blasting caps are very sensitive, so that they will be sure to detonate the dynamite charge, said Petrocchi. An experienced person knows how to handle them safely. In the hands of an inexperienced person they are extremely dangerous.

Boys and girls should know what a blasting cap looks like, and what great damage it can do, declared the chief. If found it should be left alone. Other boys and girls should be warned and a report made to a policeman, fireman, sheriff, or other law enforcement officer. He will dispose of it properly.

"In the event blasting caps or other explosives are found please call the Daly City Police department PLaza 5-4212 or the Daly City Fire department PLaza 5-1539," the police chief said.

CHECK SHOCK ABSORBERS

Have you had the shock absorbers of your car checked in the last ten thousand miles of use? That is the recommendation of the average manufacturer, according to the National Automobile Club, but experience indicates that the run of motorists pay no attention to this important feature of car comfort. This is something to remember the next time the car is sent to the shop for lubrication or other form of attention.

Safety News From Your Local Police

Watch Those Signs

Do you believe in signs? We ask this question because each year at least 6,000 drivers are involved in fatal and injury traffic accidents because they disregarded traffic signs and signals. Probably 100 times that many drivers habitually ignore traffic signs and signals. They may escape trouble for awhile but the odds are against them. Sooner or later they will ignore a sign and then tragedy strikes.

Traffic signs are in reality signs of life and are erected with just one purpose in view, to warn motorists of hazards and dangerous situations just ahead. Drivers who believe in these signs will obey them because they realize the possibility of an accident if they don't

Obedience to traffic signs mean adjusting the speed of your car to the indicated conditions. It also means making a full stop at every stop sign, never crossing a double line except when the dotted line is on your side, being extra alert at railroad crossings and when driving through construction zones, giving proper signals when turning, changing lanes or stopping and heeding the speed limit signs indicating a speed lower than 55 miles per hour. Obeying the signs of life will make your journey safer, quicker and more enjoyable.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

Our conscience has been gnawing at us. Several months ago we told you about Maestro Nino Comel who was looking for young singers for his Opera Workshop, and we emphasized that the most intriguing aspect of his search was his intention to produce the lesser known operatic works, which for one reason or another, are never done on the big opera stages.

We have since been privileged to hear twelve of his young singers illustrate a lecture by the Maestro on "The Origin and Milestones of Italian Opera," and our conscience has been nibbling at us, because it has taken us so long to comment on an instructive and throroughly enjoyable evening.

It was a very promising beginning for something that we would like to see develop into a year-round program, and although not all of the operatic selections pleased us, we feel it was the fault of our ears, accustomed to the Verdi, Bellini and Puccini styles, and merely further evidence that the lesser known masters should be heard more often.

For the listener interested in the historical development of the art of opera, the selections from Peri, Monteverdi, Alessandor Scarlatti, Cimaroso and Spontini held the most fascination. However, the enthusiasts at the other end of the time scale, who feel that the only worthwhile music is contemporary music, were not forgotten. Even the champions of opera in English had their innings, but we're not getting into that argument today.

Since lack of space prevents our naming all the young singers, we feel we must be fair and mention none, however, we have made a mental note of the voice on whom we've put our money. It will be interesting to wait and see if we are right.

An Opera Workshop is fine training for young voices interested in an operatice career. Maestro Gomel conducted operas in Europe before he came to this country in 1921, For several years he was connected with the San Francisco Opera Company, and he has been instrumental in furthering the careers of such well-known singers as Claramae Turner and Josephine Tumminia. Complete details on his Worshop can be obtained by calling Exbrook 2-4261 or JUniper 7-9072.

I say, Mr. Hal Honore! Apropos to our recent exchange of opinions on the value of revivals: Have you seen the lines outside the Warfield lately?

ALL PROGRAMS SUBJECT TO CHANGE ● NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR LAST MINUTE SCHEDULINGS

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Here it is the second week of June which brings birthdays to some and of course graduation to many. June is such a nice time of year, bringing the end of school and the beginning of lazy days of vacation to which all look forward for so long.

Among those who attended the P.G.E. picnic and brought their family and friends to have a good time were MR. and MRS. SYL CRUZ SR. of Mission street. The gang all gathered at Adobe Creek early to see the ball game which was won by the team of whom Mr. Cruz is the manager. The results of their efforts were rewarded with a very beautiful trophy to keep in memory of the event.

Having a birthday a week ago and having just the family due to the fact of the measles was little Miss JUDY MARKGRAF. She is now eight years old and of course happy over the fact that her measles are all gone and she can go outside while brother DAVID is now the proud owner of said measles. Happy birthday from all the folks Judy, and we all hope that next year's birthday will have no complications.

It is always nice to welcome new babies and this one will receive quite a welcome when she gets home. BONNIE LAURIE WALTON checked into St. Francis hospital on June 2nd at the weight of 7 lbs., 8 ozs. Mother Molly is doing fine and father Jim stood the shock very well. Little Bonnie will always be sure of some one to play with as she has three sisters and two brothers.

Items of Interest

Our Lady of Perpetual Help church was the scene of a 2:30 p.m. christening last Sunday. The baby was CHARLES PHILLIP BRUSH JR., son of MR. and MRS. CHARLES BRUSH of Hillcrest drive. Godfather honors were performed by MR. JOHN MULLER and the godmother was the baby's aunt MRS. DOROTHY STEWART of Hillcrest drive. Rev. John Norman Allen officiated at the ceremonies after which he visited for a while at the home of Mr. Muller. The parents and godparents then went out to dinner in celebration of the occasion.

One of the nicest of temporary neighbors has left us and has returned to her hometown of Denison, Iowa. MRS. ROSE BUCK, sister of MRS. ADA JASTRUMSKE of Los Olivos avenue was with us for about six months and during that time she made a host of new friends who will all miss her and hope that she comes back to see us again soon. It's so nice to have friends but one most certainly hates to see them leave us.

The TOYLAND NURSERY SCHOOL was the scene of much activity last week. They held their annual open house and many of the parents and friends of the children took the opportunity to visit the school. They had some of the children's accomplishments on display and the parents were treated to very nice refreshments. The affair was very well attended and all who went throughly enjoyed the day.

Last Sunday was the day which saw members of OLD GLORY POST and AUX. V.F.W. 2044 making the trip to the veteran's hospital in Yountville. The occasion was their annual dedication ceremonies and many of these folks make this trip each and every year and the boys really enjoy their visits.

MRS. MAUREEN MALLOY of Muirwood drive is leaving us tomorrow for Los Angeles to attend the graduation of her son THOMAS MALLOY from the Chaminade High Boarding School Seminary for boys studying to be Priests of the Society of Mary. Tommy is well known in our town having gone to O.L.P.H. School and Riordan High before entering the Seminary. He will be home for a four week's vacation after which he will leave us again for Chaminade College in Santa Cruz for one year. That is only the beginning of study for this young man as he then goes to St. Mary's College in Moraga for three years and then teaches as a Brother of Mary for four more years. After completing all this he then goes to Switzerland for three more years of intensive study after which he will be ordained a Priest of the Society of Mary. Study should be no problem for this young man as he is graduating with a straight A average. All the best wishes for his future are wished Tommy from all the folks.

Servicemen

Winding up the last few days of a well-earned furlough before returning to duty with the U. S. Army is CPL. PAUL A. MITCHELL. Paul is not sure yet just where he will spend the five remaining months of his service but hopes that it will be someplace closer to home than Japan and Korea where he spent the last year. After his service days are over Paul has plans of being a fireman and the best plans of all—getting married.

Another of the boys who seemed to grow up overnight has come home in the uniform of a U. S. Marine. PVT. FRANCIS "FRANK" BRICKER has followed in the footsteps of the rest of his brothers and a finer looking Marine you never saw. It always amazes me to see them go away boys and a few weeks later return fine young men. You know folks, we really haven't too much to worry about as far as our future security is concerned when it is in the capable hands of your sons and mine.

Home this last weekend and with a CAR to the delight of his friends was Seaman BILL BEECHER JR. Bill is still waiting for that overseas assignment and as the Navy is taking its time he figured he would have some fun before he left. Now that he has the car he will probably go in a hurry.

Memorial Day has passed but the memory of the boys and girls who are still in the hospitals lingers on. There are of course organizations who take an interest in the fellows but there is nothing like a personal card, letter or maybe a package sent just to the boy personally that does wonders for his morale. As the boys grow up and enter the services so do they enter the hospitals. When one is in bed one has lots of time to think and one sometimes wonders if they think their sacrifices for us were worth the days that go by in loneliness for them. It takes such a little time to gather up some books or magazines and give them to any of the neighbors who go to the hospitals. One of the neighbors is MRS. CLARA POKET who is known to most of us and you can get in touch with her at PL. 5-6643.

Finally had a long overdue letter from the top of the world last week. It tells us that A2/c ANDY ANDERSON of Greenland has only three more months to serve in the land of the midnight sun. It is daytime there now and after spending six months doing everything including eating and sleeping and playing in the dark, they now have to get used to doing it all in the sunshine. That isn't too bad if the wind just quits blowing and no alerts come on their off times which is what mostly happens. Andy expects to be back in the States in September and he will be a most welcome sight.

News And Views

Among the many couples who attended the Senior Ball the other night at Jeff were JOHN MADDEN and MISS JANE KENNEDY. Both these young people have plans for college after graduation. Jane plans on entering Stanford University and so far Johnny hasn't made up his mind which college he will attend but it is college for sure.

There are graduation plans afoot in the Brush family too. BILL BRUSH JR. gets the coveted diploma from Riordan High and plans on entering business. MIKE BRUSH graduates from O.L.P.H. and will attend Jefferson High along with IRVING CLEMO his inseparable sidekick.

One of the businest neighbors took time out long enough to move last week. MRS. DOROTHY STEWART has deserted Vista Grande avenue after many years residence and now makes her home on Hillcrest drive near the convenient top of the hill, so if the neighbors on Vista Grande miss seeing her they will know that she is just a few blocks away after all.

One of the nicest installations took place last week when the Eagles Auxiliary 1848 installed their new officers for the coming term. The new president is now MRS. MARGE CLARKE; vice president, MRS. MILDRED DUNN; secretary, MRS. DOROTHY CARRINGTON; chaplain, MRS. MARGE LYNCH; past president, MRS. JEAN BLANKENHORN; treasurer, MRS. EDRITE SUMMERS; trustees: MRS. DOLLY LEWKOWITZ, HELEN SEIVERS and LYNN BOSKEY; inside guard, MRS. CLARA SCALLY; outside guard, MRS. MARY VOBRIL; mother of the auxiliary, MRS. LEE O'NEILL; and musician, MRS. VIRGINIA TABEREZ. After the installation refreshments were served and then a dance was held for the members and friends in the Eagle's Hall at which one and all had a good time.

The Daly City Chapter of the City of Hope, Leukemia Guild, would like to announce that they will hold their meeting on the first Thursday of every month at the Masonic Hall at 8 p.m. On June 14, 15 and 16 they will hold their tag days. As you had the opportunity to by poppies for the Vets so will you have the chance to buy a City of Hope tag and help do your part in the fight against this dread disease. All or any donations will be gratefully received and of course the ladies with the little tin cans will be your neighbors and mine. Anyone desiring to become a member of this active organization may find out all particulars by calling MRS. LYNN BOSKEY at PL. 5-0902 or PL. 6-1856 after 6 p.m.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT ARCO of Los Olivos avenue are some of the neighbors who are already on their vacation. They took their little boy BOBBY and left last week for a visit to Chicago. While there they will visit Mr. Arco's family and of course renew many friendships. The baby PAMELA was left with her grandmother and I'll bet she has the most fun of all.

One of the cutest of little fellows had a birthday last week. Little JOHNNY WALTON of Knowles avenue was six years old and he almost had a new sister for a birthday present. According to Johnny she should have waited a few days before being born. What makes Johnny so happy is that he is now old enough to go to school which he has wanted to do for a long time.

Well, folks, another week's news is now yours and I'm sure there will be plenty happening next week what with all the graduations and parties so remember the phone is PL. 5-6482 and I'll be waiting to hear from you. Until then—'Bye Now.

REPRESENTATIVES OF ORGANIZATIONS SPONSORING VILLAGE FAIR, FESTIVAL HEAR FINANCIAL REPORT ON ACTIVITY

Representatives of all the organizations which participated in putting on the Village Fair and Festival early in May met Monday night to hear the final financial report on the Fair and to discuss ideas for the summer's proposed recreation program.

Mrs. John Hess, treasurer, gave the net profit of the project as $470.58. The gross amount taken in was quite satisfactory, but expenses were heavier than expected. A detailed financial report has been prepared and will be mailed to each participating organization.

Ray Logan, general chairman of the Fair, called for nominations from the floor to form an executive committee which will work out the plans and organization of the recreation program. Those selected by the group were:

Kenneth McBain, construction chairman for the Fair; Ray Logan, general chairman of the Fair and a member of many local organizations: Mrs. John Hess, Fair treasurer and board member of the James L. Snell PTA; Stanley Brown, president of the Garden Village Property Owners' association; Rev. L. W. Coey of the local Grace Church of the Nazarene; Mrs. Robert Neff, representing the Hope Lutheran church Ladies' Guild; and Mrs. Larry Green, past president of the James L. Snell PTA.

"San Mateo County At Play" Subject Discussed By Recreation Official At Meet Of Westlake Parent-Teachers

"San Mateo County at Play," was the subject discussed by Jack Brooks, assistant superintendent of parks and recreation, at the meeting of the Westlake PTA on June 3.

Color slides enabled the audience to visualize the woodland beauty of county parks and the public beaches. The county recreation commission is guided by a master recreation plan and, as specified in the county charter, each year the board of supervisors earmark a sum of money for the land acquisition fund. This obviates the necessity for bond issues and makes possible a long term plan of building an adequate recreation system.

A complete list of all park and recreation facilities in the county is included in the Park and Recreation Guidebook which is available at the San Mateo county recreation commission, Flood park, Menlo Park, California.

Announcement was made of a ceremony to be held in the school yard today (Wednesday) in honor of the boys and girls of the traffic patrol. In addition to their certificates, they will receive ball point pens presented by the PTA in recognition of their service.

Room attendance prize was won by the first grade class of Miss Hjelmstad.

A carefree day in the country was enjoyed by the sixth grade class and their teacher, Mrs. Benson, at the farewell picnic given by the Westlake PTA on June 3 in Sigmund Stern Grove.

After the traditional hot dog lunch the 38 students played games, led by Dennis Huajardo, physical education coordinator of the Jefferson Elementary School district. Prize winners were Linda Kerr, Melanie Hexberg, Sandra Sarubbi, Leslie Lane, Stirling Oliver, Eric Rossovich, Michael Lamanet and Fernando Rivas. The boys and girls of this class were enthusiastic dancers and spent the remainder of their day in the club house dancing to records.

Mrs. Carl Hendrickson, room representative and chairman of the party, and many sixth grade mothers worked on the committee and enjoyed the day in the grove with their children. Also in attendance were Mrs. Guido Pfotenhauer, president of the unit, and Mrs. Eleanor Zenovich, principal, and Mrs. L. Bostwick, who looked in on the party during the afternoon.

Jefferson Linksmen Take PAL Crown

GEERTSEN--BLACKBURN CO-MEDALISTS WITH 75

Despite wind and rain that sent scores skyward, Jefferson High school's links team won the PAL golf championship by a wide margin Monday in the finals at Green Hills Country club in Millbrae.

Spearheaded by John Geersten and Charles Blackburn, who were co-medalists in the PAL finals with scores of 75, the Indians rang up a total score of 322, topping second-place Burlingame by 13 strokes. The Jeff total was 11 strokes off the league record of 311.

Jefferson's victory was almost a foregone conclusion after Geertsen and Blackburn completed their rounds early in the day, giving the team a 150 total.

A Small Jolt

Local coach Mike Orlich received a small jolt when Jim Courts, who was third Jeff man in, displayed a whopping 91 score. Only two weeks earlier Courts had fired a 78 on the same course, but the pressure of competition, combined with the weather, set him off his pace.

Gary Galli brought a rosier complexion to the picture when he reported to the lockers with an 84, which virtually cinched it for the Jeffs.

Bryan Von Paul aided the cause, turning in an 88, to give the local team an easy victory.

Aldi Bacigalupi's 90 and Courts' 91 were not figured in the scoring, as only the four low scores are tabulated in the team competition.

Top Medalists

In the race for individual honors, Geertsen and Blackburn, with 75's, beat out their closest competitors by two strokes. Don Wolf of Sequoia, Dick Lanscioni of Lincoln and Doug Freeman of South San Francisco all posted rounds of 77.

Geertsen, however, had to knuckle down to the final two holes to beat out Freeman and Lanscion. In the first round the three were tied going into the 17th hole. Geertsen parred the final two holes, while Lanscione and Freeman each got bogeys.

Winning the team championship Monday capped the outstanding efforts of the Jefferson team during the 1954 PAL golfing campaign. The Indians were undefeated in dual matches, with the exception of a non-league go against Washington of San Francisco.

Last year the Jeffs went undefeated in dual matches, only to blow up in the finals and wind up second.

Things Look Good

Golf mentor Orlich will have things pretty much his own way again next year, it appears from a quick look at the returning roster.

Of nine lettermen on this year's team, seven will return. Only Geertsen and Blackburn graduate.

Although they have been the mainstay of the Jefferson outfit, the other team members have shown increasing progress during the year and several should be shooting in the high 70's by '55.

SARTO A.C. DROPS WESTLAKE HOMES

Scoring five runs in the second frame and one run in the fourth, Sarto A.C. topped Westlake Homes, 6 to 2, in a game held at Marchbanks park Sunday.

A quartet of college players from USF, R. Becker, Bill Arata, Joe La Rocco and Teddy Welp, bolstered the Sarto cause.

John Olcese paced athletic club batting with two for four.

Westlake was limited to two runs in the first inning on two hits and a walk.

Lowell Creighton, Jeff high ace, worked on the mound for Sarto and maintained control over the Westlake team after the first inning.

Creighton gave up four hits, two runs, three walks and struck out six.

Sarto's will meet a club yet to be designated Sunday at Marchbanks, beginning at 2 p.m.

YOU STILL NEED TIME

Even a driver with extremely fast reactions needs a measurable time to react in emergencies. The California State Automobile Association points out that at fifty miles an hour, a normal driver will travel fifty-five feet merely in the time it takes him to get his foot from the throttle to the brake pedal. This distance, added to the 112 feet required for even first-class brakes to bring the car to a stop, makes a total of 167 feet. The driver who takes chances frequently does not have that much room.

Westlake Improvement Association To Enforce Payment Of Annual Assessment

The Westlake Improvement association, in the face of dwindling membership, gave notice Monday night that drastic measures would be taken to enforce payment of the $6 annual assessment on homeowners.

Although the board of directors agreed that they had no means to collect the annual $1 membership fee, they said the association would be within legal bounds in enforcing payment of the annual $6 assessment.

The board read a draft of a letter Monday night which will be sent to every homeowner delinquent in paying his assessment to the association.

In essence, the letter said that homeowners were bound by the by-laws of the association to pay the $6 lien. In addition to enforcing the payment of the sum, the association will also require delinquent members to pay the cost of the suit and the attorney's fees if the assessment isn't paid within ten days after receipt of the letter.

In the proposed letter, the association said, "before filing an action and levying an attachment against your home for such a nominal amount, we felt it is only proper that we notify you of this action.

The board members said action to enforce payment of assessments was necessary "to support the instrumentality that is protecting you and your home."

A capacity audience jammed the Westlake clubhouse Monday to hear the ultimatum outlined.

In other business Monday, the board:

1. Heard complaints that trees were dying in tracts 4 and 5. August Conci, advisor, said that at least 1200 trees must be replaced, at an estimated cost of $10,000.

2. Moved to notify Daly City police about enforcing the speed limit on the Alemany extension.

3. Heard a complaint that a semi-truck was being parked on Eastgate over night.

4. Told of an agreement with Henry Doelger whereby the association would pool funds with Doelger for planting trees in tract 6. As it now stands, Doelger has been planting the trees. The association will accept a certain amount from Doelger for each tree and put up enough additional money to plant trees that will survive in the area.

Liquor Plus Minors Equals Busy Two Days For Policeman

Juvenile drinkers kept Broadmoor police officer Don Tannehill busy over the past weekend as a total of six youngsters were picked up with beer or liquor in their possession.

Four youths, three of them from Daly City, were picked up by Tannehill Friday about 9:30 p.m. after a night watchman at a Junipero Serra gas station notified police that the juveniles were fighting.

Tannehill said he found a quarter-case of beer in the front seat of the car, a half-case in the rear seat and four half-filled cans elsewhere in the car.

Apparently the four youngsters, 16 and 17 years of age, had consumed about 30 cans of beer between them over a short period, since the remaining beer was still cold, Tannehill said.

Tannehill said the juveniles were "pretty drunk."

The youths were questioned at the Broadmoor station and told officers they purchased the beer from a store on Mission street in San Francisco.

The boys were turned over to custody of their parents.

Broadmoor police chief Ray Savage said San Francisco authorities have been called upon to check the place of business which allegedly sold the beer to the minors.

Early Sunday morning Tannehill found a 16-year-old San Mateo girl and a 17-year-old Daly City youth parked in a car on San Pedro road and Edgemar. In the car was a half-bottle of vodka, which the youths said had been bought for them by a 21-year-old Daly City man.

Parents of the couple were notified.

Police are investigating the person charged with buying the liquor.
